

About the Market

Since 2007, the Mercer Island Farmers Market (MIFM) has been connecting farmers, consumers, and the Island business community to create a valuable, sustainable community asset. Each season, it provides a weekly opportunity for local residents to shop local, eat well, connect with friends and family, and enjoy music in the park. Despite the challenges of the COVID seasons, MIFM has continued to increase its attendance base, attract new vendors and expand its music program.

- Average Customers per Market: ~2,750/market (11% increase from 2022)
- 2022 Vendor Participants: ~60/market (30% increase from 2022)
- 2022 Gross Sales: ~$900,000 (27% increase from 2021)
- Landfill Waste Diverted: 6+ tons
- Seasonal Volunteers: 300+
- Instagram Followers: 2,000+ (18% increase from 2022)
- Facebook Followers: 3,100+ (13% increase from 2022)
- MIFM Market Bucks program budget: ~$21,000 (~$1,110/week)

Why Sponsor?

With nearly 3,000 visitors per week, the MIFM is a strong platform for engaging with the community and connecting with Washington State producers and artisans. Sponsorship is an opportunity to associate your business with a beloved community event, reaching thousands of Island and nearby residents who are committed to shopping locally. The MIFM relies on the support of our sponsors to keep the market open and thriving.
